We also had a fantastic assembly by Paul Hay, an E-safety expert. The children asked lots of great questions!

Theology Week -

Excerpt from a pupil. In Theology week we learnt about many beliefs on how the world was created. It was fun because all the stories were very imaginative. We also asked lots 🔊 of questions to Reverend Sally, who tried to answer them as best as she could. We found 🔊 oxinest that many stories had different meanings depending on your religious beliefs. The whole oxinestweek was a chance for us to reflect on our own beliefs.

Poem by

Kickie Dzimba Year 6

The Tiger is a soldier, A Soldier at war, The tiger comes with guns, Guns that can kill, The tiger is on a rage, A rage that he cannot control, The tiger is outnumbering it's opponant, an opponent which is not feared, The tiger has lost it's chief, A chief who was brave, The tiger's friends go down, go down one by one, The tiger is left, left alone, The tiger fires it's last guns, it's guns which defeat his opponent, The tiger becomes chief, Chief of it's pride Now the enemy is defeated,

The Story of Moses by Lydia Amoura Year 2

99999999999999999999999

Long ago a naughty Pharaoh said to his soldiers go and kill all of the new born baby boys. So Moses mother was shakey. But then she had an idea she put Moses in a basket and she sang a song then prayed to God and pushed him. The when Moses grew up he did something bad, he killed the rude, ugly Pharaoh because he was rude. Then he ran away, far away until he was hot and burning and a lady gave him some water.

Moses married the lady, so Moses spoke to the bush and the burning bush said go back to free all the slaves.
